ON THE ROAD To The Title

Semi-final preview
Elimination semi-final

Parramatta Eagles (4th) v Bankstown City Lions (5th)

Parramatta is the team everyone is looking over their shoulders at, and Roberto Viera's men could well cause some upsets over the next few weeks.

The strength of the club is such that despite Viera bringing a number of the Under 21's into Super League, the Eagles have once again won the Minor Premiership in both the Under 21's and Under 18's - a superb achievment.

Striker Grant Bard finished with 17 for the season after a brace against Blacktown, while Anthony Panzarino has stepped up to fill the sweeper role left vacant by the departure of Andrew Dowling. Goalkeeper Jason Holmes has had another consistent season, and the Eagles ended up with the best defensive record in Super League.

Bankstown have come good at just the right time, and their win at Blacktown three weeks ago made a number of teams sit up. Like Parramatta they have reshuffled their team as the season has worn on, and new signing Sasho Dimovski has added some guile to the side. Mendo Lozevski ended up with double figures for the season, which was good reward for a slow start.

Like the Eagles Bankstown have a solid looking backline, with the Luksic brothers solid defenders, but they have the habit of conceding silly goals - something that you cannot afford to do in finals time.

SUPER SOCCER TIP - Parramatta to move on and end the Lions season for 1999.

Preliminary semi-final

Blacktown City Demons (2nd) v Macarthur Rams (3rd)

Blacktown threw away the Minor Premiership, losing their last three games when just one win would have seen them claim the prize from Bonnyrigg.

Disturbingly for them they conceded 10 goals in those last three games, after conceding only 15 in their previous 19 matches. A worrying trend as we move into the finals series.

The loser of this one lives to fight again, but the Demons wouldn't want to make it four on the trot and face a sudden death game. Striker Jason Bennett has been magnificant all season, and he will look to add to his goal tally against the Rams.

Macarthur finished in the third place they have occupied for much of the season, and in truth are probably just that level below both Blacktown and Bonnyrigg. That's not to say they can't get something here though, as they go into the game after three wins out of three under new coach Brian Dene, the complete opposite to their opponents.

The Rams backline is one of the most solid in the competition, with John Crawley, Dion Valle, Richard Lloyd, Ben Willard and Matthew O'Shea behind Kain Rastell and Martin Bourke, but they will have to look to one of their front players to provide that class up front.

SUPER SOCCER TIP - Blacktown to stop their rot and win a close one.

Round 22 review

The last round of the 1999 Super League regular season was noticeable for some upsets and late goals. The matches started on the Tuesday night, when Sutherland played Eastern Suburbs in their game rearranged from Saturday night, with Sutherland knowing a win would make them safe and secure their position in Super League.

Eastern Suburbs 0 Sutherland Sharks 3

Mark Fowler was at Seymour Shaw

The Sutherland Sharks ensured they would not get the wooden spoon with a gutsy performance against the Eastern Suburbs Wanderers on a cold Tuesday night at Seymour Shaw.

While the football on offer by both teams was full of endeavour and commitment, with so much at stake and on a wet surface the quality was poor - but no one from Sutherland was complaining!

The result was tough on Eastern Suburbs, who actually looked the more likely team going forward, but a naivety in defence was exploited, crucually, early and then again twice late in the game.

Sutherland opened the scoring after just six minutes, and the goal came from an unlikely source. Achilleas Markopoulos, who showed great speed throughout the game but was let down by his final ball, broke through only to see his shot somehow saved by Con Anastasiadis in the Wanderers goal. The ball fell kindly to Aaron Harris though, and he scored his first of the season to give Sutherland a valuable lead.

Eastern Suburbs hit back when Peter Pullicino, a stand out in midfield for his team, chested the ball down before finding Olla in the Sharks net. Three minutes later Max Sevares hammered a ball goalwards that beat Olla, but Markopoulos was on the line to boot the ball away to safety.

Sutherland also had an effort cleared off the line when defender Adam Daley glanced a header goalwards from a corner, but an Eastern Suburbs defender was stood on duty at the far post and leapt to clear the ball away.

Five minutes after the re-start Pullicino had two attempts after Olla was unable to clear properly, but the number 2 for Eastern Suburbs could only fire straight at the goalkeeper the second time. The 'home' team continued to push forward, and while unable to create anything too clear-cut Olla was always there to mop up, and he gave exactly the air of assurance needed on such a night.

As Eastern Suburbs pushed forward Sutherland's Craig Hobbs looked more and more menacing as he started to see more of the ball on the breaks, and when John Lavin pulled out a bit of magic the game was sealed. Lavin took off Cord Tolson, replacing him with 16 year old Kris Karanosos, who just two minutes later, and with his first touch, made it 2-0 for the Sharks. His goal was a simple finish, but the club must be delighted, and indeed congratulated, on finding a youngster who knew where to be to turn the ball over the line from close range.

It was all Sutherland from then on, with Karanosos' goal coming after 79 minutes, and to add salt into the already gaping wound Hobbs made it 3-0 right on the full time whistle. It was tough on Eastern Suburbs as the scoreline was no reflection of the play, but the Sharks fought hard and deserved the luck that finally went their way. Sutherland were safe - now Eastern Suburbs had to go to the Central Coast and win to avoid coming bottom.

Eastern Suburbs: Anastasiadis, Pullicino, Darvill (Stout), Canning (Swords), Ekinci, Imaya, Sevares, Maglis, Jerkovic, Mitakidis, Nicholls

Sutherland: Olla, Daley, Harris, Richardson (Mozsny), Bideau, Markopoulos, Hobbs, Tedesco, Giraldo, Tolson (Karanosos), Ristovski

Goals: Sutherland: Harris 6' Karanosos 79' Hobbs 90'

Yellow cards: Sutherland: Bideau

Yellow cards: Sutherland: Bideau
Best for Eastern Suburbs: Ekinci
Best for Sutherland: Olla

Canterbury Marrickville 3
Bonnyrigg White Eagles 2

Mark Fowler was at Henson Park

Bonnyrigg celebrated their second Minor Premiership win in two years, but they did it the hard way, losing at Canterbury Marrickville before hearing that Blacktown had gone down 4-1 at Parramatta.

A rip-roaring first half had everything, three goals, yellow cards, a couple of tussles, two disallowed 'goals' and shots cleared off the line. It made one nervous just watching, let alone playing or coaching!

It was a dream start for Canterbury Marrickville, and conversely a nightmare for Bonnyrigg when Nick Bosevski tried his luck from 25 metres out after just six minutes. From the moment the ball left his boot though there was only one thing that could stop it - the back of the net - which it duly did.

Five minutes later Sasha Bozic in the Bonnyrigg goal could only fumble a cross straight into the path of Simon Fedele, but the number 10 shot weakly back at the goalkeeper. Bozic had a day to forget, as after mis-kicking a couple of back passes he then fumbled a number of crosses, and never showed the undoubted talent that this young goalkeeper has.

Bonnyrigg started to push forward after the initial shock of going a goal down, and after 16 minutes Johnny Ghisso, who must have been very close to being off-side, broke through and centred the ball. Steve Tolios was just unable to get his hand to it, but did enough to put off Javier Mancino, who' s subsequent miss from 6 metres looked worse than it was.

On 18 minutes Bonnyrigg had the ball in the back of the net but the referee's whistle had long blown, then a minute later Ghisso's header was ruled out after the referee's assistant had raised his flag for offside.

A minute after that Rudi Nasser nearly caught Bozic out when his deep cross sailed over the goalkeeper and just wide of the far post, and on 22 minutes another cross was spilled by the goalkeeper but the Berries were unable to capitalise.

On 27 minutes from a corner the ball was headed towards the Canterbury Marrickville goal, but was just as quickly headed back out again off the line. Four minutes later Robbie Gomez was forced wide by Tolios, before shooting past the goalkeeper only to see his effort cleared off the line once again.

An ugly tussle on 34 minutes saw three players booked, but just a few minutes later came Bonnyrigg's deserved equaliser. Gomez chipped the ball across goal for Joe Bruni to react sharply and score with a neat header.

Two minutes later Bruni made it 2-1, although much of the praise belonged to Mancino. His superb through ball over a flat Berries defence saw Bruni race forwards before finishing neatly, and all of a sudden it was 2-1 to Bonnyrigg and everything was going to plan.

The second half started in similar vein to the first, and the impressive Ben Green sped down the right flank before whipping over a cross for Bruni. The striker got his head to the ball but too faintly, and the ball went across the face of the goal.

Canterbury Marrickville were starting to look more dangerous as Bonnyrigg seemed unable to wake from the half time rest, and on 66 minutes Canterbury Marrickville equalised. A far post cross saw Brett Hewitt dive in, and the ball clipped the inside of the post before going in for an expertly taken header.

Bonnyrigg seemed to panic after the goal, although with Parramatta at this point starting to get well clear of Blacktown, it didn't really matter. The Berries though continued to go forward, and it was no surprise when Bosevski netted his second and the winner with just 14 minutes remaining. His header completed a fine brace for the striker, hitting the underside of the bar with Bozic well beaten.

Bonnyrigg never looked like grabbing an equaliser after that, but it was still surprisingly muted celebrations that followed the final whistle. A week off will be appreciated by the Bonnyrigg players though, and it is to be hoped that week sees them forget their second half performance and go back to playing the attacking style of football that makes them so good to watch. After 22 rounds the best team wins the competition, and while Blacktown have slipped up you can do no more than secure the most number of points - something they have done and should be very proud of.

Central Coast 2
Eastern Suburbs 0

The battle for the 'wooden spoon', as expected, turned out to be a hard-fought affair with several on-field clashes from players of both teams.

Despite that referee Nick Asargiotis kept strict control of the game, and handled several potentially difficulty situations with aplomb.

It was Eastern Suburbs who carved out the first chance, Peter Pullicino shooting just wide of the post, before Coasties captain Peter Preston dribbled superbly before forcing Con Anastasiadis to make a fine save.

Clint Smith then scraped the outside of the post from a Preston free kick, but then smashed a shot against the crossbar from three metres out following good work by Justin Norman.

The teams went in at half time, with Pullicino from Eastern Suburbs and Preston from the Coasties looking the most dangerous players on each side.

After the break the Wanderers looked the team more likely to score, with Pullicino, Orhan and Nicholls all testing Gary Meier, but with just 15 minutes to go Nathan Byrn broke away and coolly lobbed the goalkeeper to put the Coasties one in front.

The Wanderers were all but finished, as the goal meant they had to score twice in the last 15 minutes, and Preston ensured there would be no comeback with a goal after more good work by Byrn.

For the Central Coast the party went long into the night, with an ecstatic Allan Bourke delighted with his team's effort, and singled out Brent Demery as his man of the match.

For Eastern Suburbs two games in six days, one of which they had to win, slipped by and although they went down fighting it was them who ended up in that dreaded last spot.

Parramatta Eagles 4
Blacktown City Demons 1

Parramatta turned in a stunning second half performance to overpower Blacktown, and leave the other teams in the top five looking nervously over their shoulders.

Grant Bard missed a chance after just two minutes when he shot over after good work by George Wakim, but it was actually the Demons who took the lead on 20 minutes.

A cross from the right saw striker Jason Bennett get in behind the defence, and he finished for his 14th of the season.

The Eagles missed a couple of chances late in the half, Anthony Mittiga and Paul O'Grady both coming close, but immediately after the re-start they got right back into the game.

Just a minute had lapsed in the second period when Sasha Utjesenovic, who had just come onto the field, beat his man on the right hand side before drilling the ball into the back of the net.

It got even better for Parramatta just two minutes later, when Bard smashed home a shot from 25 metres out, and then two goals in the last ten minutes to Boskovski and another to Bard made it 4-1, and secured both teams fate.

Sutherland Sharks 0
Macarthur Rams 3

Peter Smith and Greg Stock were at Seymour Shaw

Macarthur needed a win to guarantee third spot and a draw to guarantee a top five spot, but it was their opponents, fielding an inexperienced side and with nothing to play for, who shaded an even first half.

After just 10 minutes Craig Hobbs smashed a volley against the crossbar after good work by Sam Mozsny, then on 22 minutes Mozsny himself forced Macarthur goalkeeper John Crawley to save at full stretch.

Three minutes later Macarthur's Shane Knight flicked a ball past onto the post, but just before the break Craig Hobbs latched onto a loose back-pass only to be forced wide by Crawley.

The second half was a different story, as the Rams quickly gained the ascendancy, with ex-Sharks striker Jim Aschner drilling a shot past Dennis Olla after good work by Knight to make it 1-0. Three minutes later Aschner put in a superb cross which David Reid finished neatly at the far post to double the lead.

It was all Macarthur at that stage, and substitute Trevor Whiddett sealed the win with a classy lob as the clock would down.

Sutherland coach John Lavin said afterwards he had used the game to give some of his younger players a taste of Super League, while Macarthur boss Brian Dene said he was delighted his club had all three grades through to the semi-finals stage.

The other two Super League round 22 games saw Bankstown City Lions go to Ryde City and come away with a 1-0 win. The win saw the Lions keep their fifth spot, and a place in the elimination semi-final against the Parramatta Eagles. The only goal of the game came from striker Mendo Lozevski, the number 10 scoring, quite fittingly, his tenth of the season.

Fairfield Bulls travelled to the Leichhardt Tigers knowing that they needed to do better than Bankstown, but with the Lions winning the outcome of this game proved immaterial. The Bulls have delighted spectators in their first year in Super League with a brand of attacking football that has seen them score 45 goals, and only defeats and dropped points to some of the lower place teams has hindered their progress.

The game at Lambert Park was, quite fittingly, a thriller, with the Tigers going 1-0 up before Mark Hoenselaars grabbed his 15th of the season in the 34th minute to make it 1-1. A minute later though Chris Lansdown made it 2-1 for the Tigers, and when Mite Talcevski made it 3-1 with just 12 minutes to go that looked like it.

An own goal though made it 3-2 in the last minute, but the Tigers held on to finish one place behind their opponents.

ROUND EIGHTEEN SUMMARY

SAINTS SPOIL DULWICH HILL PARTY WHILE DOLPHINS SETTLE FOR POINT AGAINST PANTHERS

Leaders Manly Warringah were left to rue many missed early chances when they were held to a 1-1 draw by the Penrith Panthers at Cromer Park on Sunday.

Less than a minute into the game the Dolphins hit the lead when Dean Harding crossed the ball in from the right, where Kelvin Foster was perfectly placed to head home.

Foster atoned for several misses from similar positions the previous week against Illawarra Lions, when he met the cross with pin point accuracy and directed the ball past Mike Gibson, who was at full stretch, and could not prevent the header finding its way into the bottom right hand corner of the net.

Shots in the 4th minute from Andy Townsend and from Paul Wearne in the 5th went close to adding to the Manly lead and in the 8th Wearne also had a curling shot, from a good 20 yards out, and to the left of goal, well saved by the veteran Gibson.

The Dolphins had all the ball in the first 10 minutes but couldn't extend their lead

Penrith began to make their presence felt after this opening period and in a couple of counter attacks tried two shots, but these were never from close enough to trouble the Dolphins' keeper Dean McCreath.

In the 16th minute Penrith won a corner and when the ball was whipped into the middle of the box by Steve Sweeney an unmarked Alan Picken was able to put away a decisive, header to even the scores.

In the 24th one of Manly's better players on the day, Matt Bastian, drew a hand ball just outside the box and from the resultant free kick Danny Barbalace tested the keeperwith a shot that was right on target and was then well saved down lowby the big man.

Jon Hawkins had a long range shot from deep on the right which bounced offthe top of the crossbar in the 32nd for the Panthers, who were always dangerous.

Just before the break a ball sent over the top of the defenders by Alan Hunter to DamianRosenthal saw that player get the better of John Grima before laying on a pass for Harding who shook off Ben Wright and then had his excellent shot well saved by Gibson.

There was a scare for the Dolphins in the 55th when Mark Moult handled the ball on the edge of the box and directly in front. After the free kick had been played into the wall the ball fell for substitute Robert Wozniczka whose shot was just wide of the right post.

On the hour, Penrith again looked menacing and a venomous shot by Richard Astone seemed to be heading into the top left corner, but was stopped by the keeper with a save that saw the ball then wasted at the second attempt to play it back in.

The Dolphins almost sealed a win for themselves when in the 89th minute the powerful Danny Barbalace took a cracking long range shot from midfield, hit with much force and which the keeper did extremely well to save at full stretch.

Auburn returned from the central west with another 3 points in the bag to emphasise their improvement in recent weeks, a tribute to astute coach Henry Sobczyk and the players he has assembled.

Bathurst had a washout the previous week and had to wait for this game to parade their latest signing, Englishman Richard Wilcox, who was most impressive.

For Auburn both Huseyin Bayhan and Navid Varess missed good chances very early on, but it was Bathurst who could have led after 20 minutes when from a corner a header by Scott Mutton hit another player from his own team and deflected over the top to save Auburn's blushes.

Bathurst in the 25th also had a strong chance to score when Brad Gallard was just over the bar with a fine shot.

Haydar Arslan then made one important diving save, low, from a Bathurst striker late in the half and Wilcox also headed a Mutton cross just over the bar only seconds before the break.

Soon after the restart Gallard put Mutton through, but Arslan denied him with another fine save.

Mutton then beat two defenders and delivered a cross from the byline that was met by Mark Rooke whose shot was cleared off the Auburn line by a defender in the 50th.

In the 58th Mutton was left unmarked and tapped the ball in for the lead when Arslan was not able to hold onto a stinging shot from Mark Rooke, after a strong run down the left by Wilcox and a telling pass by David Baillie.

Arslan was forced to tip a 62nd minute in-swinging corner from the versatile Mutton, over the bar, but it was not long before the introduction of substitute Gurdal Ozcan in the 68th minute by the visitors began to make an impact.

Ozcan came on and made some incisive runs which saw Auburn gradually work their way into some good scoring positions.

In the 75th minute Navid Varess hit a low, hard cross from the right which came off Bathurst defender Glen Wallace who was closest to the goal and the ball found its way into the top left corner of the net for an equaliser.

From Aydin Cetinay's 82nd minute cross Bayhan missed a clear chance on goal when a defender had time to get back and clear when an early strike might well have provided the winner.

That winner did arrive, though, in the 88th from an Erkin Demir cross, from a free kick, awarded 20 yards out on the right, which saw the ball placed beyond the wall to the far post where Cetinay was able to get his boot to it first and nail the winner.

For Cetinay it was a triumphant return to the club he left to join Ryde City two years ago and back in Auburn colours he may score a few more in the remaining weeks.

Dulwich Hill underlined their improvement with a narrow loss to second placed St George at Arlington Oval on Sunday.

Dulwich showed much more fire in this game than they have done so far and deservedly had a two-goal lead by the first 38 minutes of an entertaining first half.

Brazilian wizard Alex dos Santos, plagued by fitness problems this season that saw him unable to break back into the side until a few weeks ago, reminded fans of his prowess both in the air and on the ground with two goals for the side he top scored for last season in their promotion-clinching year.

Alex Araujo had gone close for St George in the opening passages of play following good lead up work by Simon Verrander and Tim Preston.

A fine run down the left by John Sherry and a big deep cross from the popular wingback saw the ball reach the outer edge of the penalty area on the far side where dos Santos got in a steepling header into the top left corner of the net to thrill the crowd.

dos Santos then set up Gabriel Gonzales with a cross from the left in the 24th that the latter smashed just over the bar.

Then, in the 32nd, newcomer Phil Marek let fly with a 25 yard free kick that Trinity Allen did well to get down to and save after the ball had flown past the wall.

Zlatko Momircevski at one end and Alex Araujo at the other both went close for their respective sides before dos Santos made it 2-0 when he was on hand to put away the loose ball after Momircevski's shot from the right had only been palmed away by the keeper.

When Gordon Sutherland danced his way into the Dulwich penalty area in the 45th minute he proved too toey for the defence, and was bundled over by the unfortunate Luis Pereira. Stefan Janic tucked away the resultant penalty.

A further chance came in the last seconds when Sutherland was again impeded, this time by Saso Spirovski, but the free kick awarded was not fruitful.

St George were a much better outfit in the second period and almost scored again six minutes after the restart.

Sutherland again made progress down the left and his cross was touched onto the post by Araujo and cleared to safety.

The Saints enjoyed their best spell of the game from this point on and after another Araujo effort had gone narrowly wide Leo Carle was able to provide passes for both Janic and Araujo to score in the 67th and 68th minutes respectively.

Louis Dounis could have made it four in the 78th but Peter Trajcevski was able to come off his line and get down well to save.

dos Santos had an angled shot well saved after getting the better of Mark Brennan in the last moments, but it was too late to salvage a point after that.

Rockdale enjoyed another solid win on the Saturday at Moorebank where three first half goals settled the issue.

Rockdale brought in Iain Macdonald on loan from Macarthur and he started the game while two more new players, Keegan Pillay and Pat Darvill were fresh on the bench.

Rockdale looked very lively early on and when Peter Apolevski made a fast break in the 9th minute which allowed Allan Gardiner to lay on a pass for MacDonald to go through, the player was brought down by Alexopoulos inside the area.

Spase Najdoski took the penalty which Les Pogliacomi saved, but from the rebound Apolevski was able to find Goce Trposki whose glancing header found the net.

Steve Cklamovski made a good break with Apolevski in support and then proceeded to clip the ball just over the bar when in receipt of the return pass.

In the 28th minute Bill Petrovski came through from the back to send MacDonald off on a left sided raid which culminated in a clever pass around the back of the defence which then allowed Trposki to tap in from close range for the second.

A free kick on the left in the 37th minute led to Rockdale's third which came when Petrovksi finished off a move he had begun, by steering a low shot past the keeper, after Apolevski had been able to cut the ball back from the byline.

Pogliacomi made a number of fine second half saves to keep the scores at 3-0, denying Trposki in the 62nd , Gardiner in the 81st and Najdoski in the 82nd , before a good move involving MacDonald, Darvill, Najdoski and Trposki saw the latter's shot again saved by the on-loan Wollongong keeper in the 84th.

Moorebank's physical approach did not yield dividends on this occasion with the guile and skill of the Rockdale youngsters winning the plaudits on the day.

MacDonald slotted back into the side he left at the end of last year as if he had not been away and the visitors were even able to give their other keeper Andrew Prentice an outing towards the finish.

Saturday's other game down at Kembla Grange visitors saw A C United slump to a 1-5 loss to Illawarra Lions after being 0-2 down and having a player, David Galuzzo, sent off before the break.

In the 55th minute Fabio Screpis gave some hope to the visitors who had been two down to goals from Jason Kencevski in the 20th and Velemir Kupr esak in the 38th.

Kencevski went on to get a hat trick, with further goals in the 65th and 75th, while the other goal came from Jim Mellisourgos in the 85th.

Hurstville City squeezed Stanmore out of their clear second spot on the ladder when a Tom Pontidas goal in the 65th minute gave them a 1-0 win over their close rivals the Hawks.

ROUND SEVENTEEN REVIEW

HAJDUK BEATS SYDNEY UNIVERSITY BUT FRASER PARK HELD BY HURSTVILLE

The game on Saturday at Scots Field was a close and lively affair with Arncliffe prevailing courtesy of a 40th minute goal from Ali Jaafar.

The game began with Arncliffe in a very attacking mood and when in the 15th min Zlatko Nastevski sent Rob Todorovski on the way to goal it needed a top save from Matt Darwento deny the home side an early lead.

In the 20th minute a cross from Steve Josevski saw Jaafar clip the ball over the bar and five minutes later, from an Arthur Prentzas pass Leon Markovski was on target with his shot only for Mounties' 16 year old defender Craig Morton to clear the ball away.

After 38th minutes the Mounties themselves looked menacing with a Joe Irofino pass setting up Glen Lowe whose shot sailed narrowly over the bar.

Arncliffe took the lead when, from a free kick by Pre ntzas to Jaafar was able to hit the back of the net from close range.

The final stages of the first half saw Glen Lowe come to Mount Pritchard's rescue with some good defensive work after a strong raid by Arncliffe side.

The visitors continued to press for an equaliser and in the 50th Morton made a fine run up the right side and got a pass away to Frank Di Filippo, who laid the ball on for Greg Baldock to have his shot go past the keeper, but also just wide of the far post.

On the hour the Mounties had an even better chance to draw level but it went begging after a string of passes between Ian Stoddart, Franco Cosentino and Baldock saw the latter go around the keeper. With the open goal at his mercy, however, he took too long putting the ball away and the keeper was able to race back and make a desperate save on thegoal-line.

Arncliffe almost made it two in the 80th but Matt Darwen was able to tip a shot from Nastevski over the bar.

Arncliffe survived a tense final five minutes during which the keeper was forced to punch shots away twice and in the 87th Ian Stoddart's shot was cleared off the line and Greg Baldock's shot was again pushed away by the keeper.

Second placed Fraser Park and third placed Hurstville met at Fraser Park's Sydenham headquarters and the visitors came away with a point from a 1-1 draw that could easily have been a win after a dazzling second half spell that saw chances galore created by the Hurstville side.

In the end they had to wait until the last minute to snatch a point.

An even first fifteen minutes saw both sides going close, with Ante Zizic heading just wide for Fraser and Eddy Bosnar having a free kick cleared to safety.

Fraser won a free kick out deep and wide on the left in the 14th minute and when Zizic floated the ball into the goalmouth Matthew Zec was able to get in a deft, glancing header that saw the ball loop into the top right corner of the Hurstville net.

A ball cut back from the byline by Jeff Suzor in the 41st produced Fraser's best other chance in the first period when Steve Lawrence had a fierce shot cleared off the line by Robert Harmat.

Robert Babaic skimmed a shot over the bar for Hurstville in the 44th after Gary Deprato and Alan Pavelic had combined and provided the cross.

Hurstville custodian Tom Miletic got down well to save at the foot of the post from a low Zec shot after good lead up work by Zizic and John Palapanis in the 52nd, but the remainder of the half was Hurstville's with Fraser keeper Angelo Rodic required to make two superb reflex saves from Ivan Maric in the 73rd and 84th with Maric and Babaic also off target with other efforts.

The equaliser came when Hurstville advanced on the right past defenders and into the area with a cross being provided that was cleared only as far as Ante Buntic who lobbed the keeper successfully from 25 yards out.

Leaders Hajduk Wanderers played some of their best football of the season in defeating 4th placed Sydney University at Hajduk Stadium on Sunday.

Both keepers were kept busy in the first period, with Hajduk gradually getting on top and getting the ball in the net in the 15th through Damien Brown only to have the goal ruled offside by referee Wayne Crabbe.

In the 41st minute, however, Hajduk took the lead when Trent Worrall made a fine run on the left and after getting past three defenders, crossed for Brown to score from close range.

Chris Rasmus also had the ball in the net just before half time, but the player was deemed to have handled before getting the ball over the line.

Five minutes after the restart Paul Croci gave a perfect pass for Brown to score his second and five minutes later new signing Rick Giometti made a good run and crossed to the goalmouth, where a defender headed against his own crossbar and from the rebound out on the left J J Ellul produced a fine header to make it 3-0.

Another new signing Steve Price from Bankstown did well on debut via the subs bench and showed plenty of speed, while Croci was in good touch and could have nabbed a fourth for his side, but for a superb save by Matt Craw in the Sydney Uni goal after Tony Krslovic had picked out his team mate with a telling pass.

Hajduk will prove hard to stop on this performance.

Sydney District recorded their first win of the season when they accounted for lowly Hills United at Camdenville Oval on Sunday.

Hills were saved on several occasions by their keeper Abdul Alamedine but there was not a lot he could do in the 85th minute when Jeff Fonseca scored the winner via a deflection from Hills' defender Vaughan Profilo, after a sustained period of pressure as the game began to wind down.

Alamedine had saved brilliantly from a 33rd minute free kick by Malcolm

Dominquez and also from David Craven in the 37th.

Belmore left it late to claim their fourth win of the season at the expense of University of NSW who are perilously close to that relegation position now.

Leo Alexiou scored the winner for Belmore in the 89th, to sink the students at David Philips Field and leave bottom side District within a point of Uni of NSW and within two of Hills United.

Greystanes got into the goalscoring mood at Bathurst Street Park with a 5-1 trouncing of Mount Druitt.

Andrew Cauchi put the Stanes ahead on 10 minutes and after Darren Crittenden had stroked in the second Mount Druitt's Paul Graham pulled one back in the 31st.

Another second half goal, a header by Crittenden in the 63rd and goals from Todd Harper in the 68th and Gary Comerford in the 80th provided some excitement for the locals for whom it was their 5th win of the season.

Round 22 review

G13

The top four in the Grade 13 competition remained the same, with leaders Blacktown City Demons winning 7-0 over the Sutherland Sharks to maintain their huge lead. In second place Wollongong are doing their best, and won 5-0 at Manly Warringfah, while it was tougher for the Newcastle Breakers who won 1-0 against the Gladesville Hornsby Association.

Sydney Olympic are in fourth and won 8-2 over Marconi Fairfield, while in fifth the Parramatta Eagles jumped up three places after a 2-0 win at the Southern Districts.

The other two games that were played, as the Central Coast and Leichhardt Tigers was washed out, saw the Macarthur Rams and Sydney United., and Eastern Suburbs and the Southern Branch, fight out scoreless draws.

G14

Sydney Olympic remains top of the G14 competition after a 5-0 win over Marconi Fairfield, while in secoind Sydney United wre held to a scoreless draw by the Macarthur Rams.

The Gladesville Hornsby Association sits in third after also being held to a 0-0 draw, this time with the Newcastle Breakers, so Blacktown closed the gap in fourth with a 2-0 home win over Sutherland.

The Southern Districts are in fifth and were another team to experience a 0-0 draw, against the Parramatta Eagles, and Wollongong in sixth defeated the Manly Warringah Dolphins 3-1.

The day's other game saw Eastern Suburbs defeat the Southern Branch 2-1.

G15

There was little chance at the top of the table, with the leaders Blacktown opening up a five point gap with a 3-0 win over Sutherland. The Gladesville Hornsby Association were held to a 1-1 draw at Newcastle, but remain second, although Marconi Fairfield in third won 7-1 away to Sydney Olympic.

Southern Distritcs are in fourth and won 4-0 against the Parramatta Eagles, and Sydney United in fifth had a 1-0 win over Macarthur.

There were two 1-1 draws in the other two games, Manly Warringah drawing with Wollongong and Eastern Suiburbs and Southern Branch doing the same.

G16

It was a good week for Sydney Olympic, as they won on Saturday 3-1 at home to Marconi Fairfield, then drew 1-1 in their re-arranged match with the Gladesville Hornsby Association.

That gives them a three point lead over Leichhardt, whose game with the Central Coast was washed out, and Newcastle remains third after going down 2-0 to the Association team that drew with the leaders.

Wollongong are in fourth after a 2-0 win over the Manly Wararingah Dolphins, and Blacktown fifth after a 3-2 win over Sutherland.

The Parramatta Eagles moved up to sixth after their 11-0 thrashing of the Southern Districts, and while Macarthur were beating Sydney United 1-0, Eastern Suburbs and the Southern Branch were drawing 1-1 at Hensley Athletic Field.

Round 19 review

G13

With a number of games being washed out there were no changes to the G13 table after Saturday's games, as the first versus third clash between the Illawara Lions and AC United at Abruzzi Oval fell victim of the weather.

It gave the Bankstown Association in second a chance to cut some of the eleven point gap on the Lions, put they lost 3-1 at home to the Blacktown Association, who are in fourth and starting to look menacing for the two teams above them.

St George in fifth saw their game with Stanmore called off, but Bonnyrigg in sixth went to Marrickville Oval and came away with a 1-0 win over Canterbury Marrickville.

Hills United remains seventh after a 0-0 draw at Rockdale, who are one place below them, and the days other game saw the Penrith Panthers win 2-1 at the bottom club Fairfield Bulls.

G14

Leaders Ryde and second placed AC United both had their games washed out, so Bonnyrigg moved into second after winning 8-0 at Canterbury Marrickville. St George in fourth was another top team to see their game washed out as well.

Penrith remains fifth but won 3-0 at the Fairfield Bulls and are followed by the Canterbury Association, who should have played Ryde City.

Hills United is in seventh despite a 3-2 defeat by Rockdale and the Bankstown Association defeated the Blacktown Association 2-1 at Jensen Park.

G15

AC United's clash with the Illawara Lions was washed out on Saturday, but they still have a five-point lead from Bonnyrigg, who won 6-0 at Canterbury Marrickville.

Ryde in third saw their game with the Canterbury Association washed out, and Hills United in fourth were held to a 1-1 draw by the Rockdale City Suns, who moved off the bottom and above Canterbury Marrickville on goal difference.

The Bankstown Association in fifth were beaten 1-0 at home to the Blacktown Association, and with the Stanmore and St George clash being washed out the days other game saw the Penrith Panthers come away from the Fairfield Bulls with a 3-0 win.

G16

The Bankstown Association held on to their four-point lead at the top of the G16 table, despite going down 2-1 at home to the Blacktown Association.

Ryde in second had their game washed out, and the Blacktown Association joined the Gunners on 36 points after their win.

Fourth placed Illawara and fifth placed Stanmore both saw their games washed out, and Penrith jumped into sixth after a 2-0 win over Fairfield, AC United dropping a place as they should have been playing the Lions.

Bonnyrigg are in eighth after a 6-0 win at Canterbury Marrickville, and are followed by Rockdale and Hills United who drew 0-0 at Rockdale.

Round 16 review

G13

Despite a full program on Saturday, there were no changes to the G13 table.

The Nepean Association still has a two-point lead at the top of the table, despite their game at Hawkesbury City being washed out.

The Ku-ring-gai Association could therefore have gone top, but lost 2-0 at Mt Druitt, and Macquarie Sports in third closed the gap as they beat the Camden Tigers 1-0.

Mt Druitt are in fourth, and Mt Pritchard in fifth also had a 1-0 win, this time over the Granville Association.

Hajduk Wanderers are sixth and defeated their visitors Parramatta City 3-0, while CSI Schofields and Moorebank Sports shared the points in a 1-1 draw.

G14

Leaders Macquarie Sports went down to only their second defeat of the season on Saturday, losing 2-1 at home to the Camden Tigers.

Macquarie stay top on goal difference however, as Mt Pritchard defeated the Granville Association to join the leaders on 31 points.

CSI Schofields in third are four points behind the top two, and they won 5-0 against Moorebank Sports, while the Nepean Association in fourth saw their game at Hawkesbury City washed out.

Camden's fine win saw them move up to fifth, above the Ku-ring-gai Association who lost 2-1 at Mt Druitt, and the Granville Association.

The days other game saw Parramatta City travel to Hajduk Wanderers, and move level on points with their opponents after a 5-1 victory.

G15

The top two played in the G15's on Saturday, and it was the leaders Hajduk Wanderers who stretched their lead to seven points after defeating Parramatta City 3-1.

The Ku-ring-gai Association in third also lost, 2-0 at Mt Druitt, and making it an even better day for Hajduk, fourth-placed Mt Pritchard drew 1-1 with he Granville Association.

Moorebank Sports are in fifth and they were another top team who failed to take all three points, drawing 2-2 at CSI Schofields, while Macquarie Sports are next as they won 2-0 over the Camden Tigers.

G16

The only change to the G16 table after Saturday's games came at the bottom, where CSI Schofields notched up their first win against Moorebank Sports, who went into the game just a point ahead. It was CSI though who took the honours and in some style, winning 5-1.

At the top the Nepean Association saw their lead cut to three points when their game at Hawkesbury City was washed out, and the Camden Tigers in second took full advantage, winning 4-1 at Macquarie Sports.

Mt Druitt in third won 3-1 at the Ku-ring-gai Association, and Hajduk Wanderers in fourth won 2-0 over Parramatta City.

In fifth place Mt Pritchard won 2-1 against the Granville Association.

Round 15 review

G11

The top teams in the G11 competition continue to march on, leaders Canterbury Marrickville securing a 6-0 win at home to Bonnyrigg.

That maintained their three point lead over Sydney United, 1-0 winners over Macarthur, and eight point lead over Marconi Fairfield, who won 4-0 at Ryde.

St George in fourth won 5-1 over Eastern Suburbs, and the Parramatta Eagles moved up two places after a 4-0 win over Parramatta City.

G12

The top four in the G12 competition were all in action on Sunday - and all four came away with maximum points.

Sydney United has a one point lead after a 3-0 win over the Macarthur Rams, and Marconi Fairfield remains second after a 4-1 win at Ryde.

St George in third defeated Eastern Suburbs 3-1, and fourth placed Parramatta Eagles won 2-0 at Parramatta City.

Round 18 review

G11

Macquarie Sports opened up a five-point lead at the top of the G11 table after a 3-0 win at Mt Pritchard. The Illawara Lions were in second going into Sunday's matches, but their game with AC United was washed out, so Penrith Panthers moved into second with a 1-0 win over Hills United.

Hills stay in fourth and AC United in fifth, while Hawkesbury City in sixth was held to a 2-2 draw at Hurstville City.

Stanmore remains seventh but their game with Moorebank was another that fell foul to the weather, and in the days other game CSI Schofields went to Mt Druitt and came away with a 2-0 win.

G12

The top four stayed the same after Sunday's games, as Stanmore's game with Moorebank was washed out. Penrith in second had a 1-0 win at Hills United, and Macquarie Sports in third had a 2-0 win at Mt Pritchard.

Hills remain fourth despite their loss, but CSI Schofields moved up two places into fifth after their 1-0 win at Mt Druitt.

The teams who dropped below CSI were Illawara and AC United whose game was washed out, and Hawkesbury City picked up its fourth win over the season, a 2-1 win over bottom club Hurstville City Minotaurs.
